CYA (CrYpto Alliance)

- When using the Cya p2e service, a portion of the sales is credited to the service's fund pool.
- If you have the CUT of the corresponding fund pool, you will receive a dividend once every 7 days.
- If you have a CAT, you can receive dividends and participate in the operation.

CYA Token

- *You can exchange CYA by collateralizing BNB.
- *1CYA always converges to $1000, but a slight difference may occur in the course of mid-price fluctuations.
- *If the BNB price continues to fall while the smart contract has low BNB holdings, the blockchain may lose its ability to pay BNB to producers and producers.

CUT

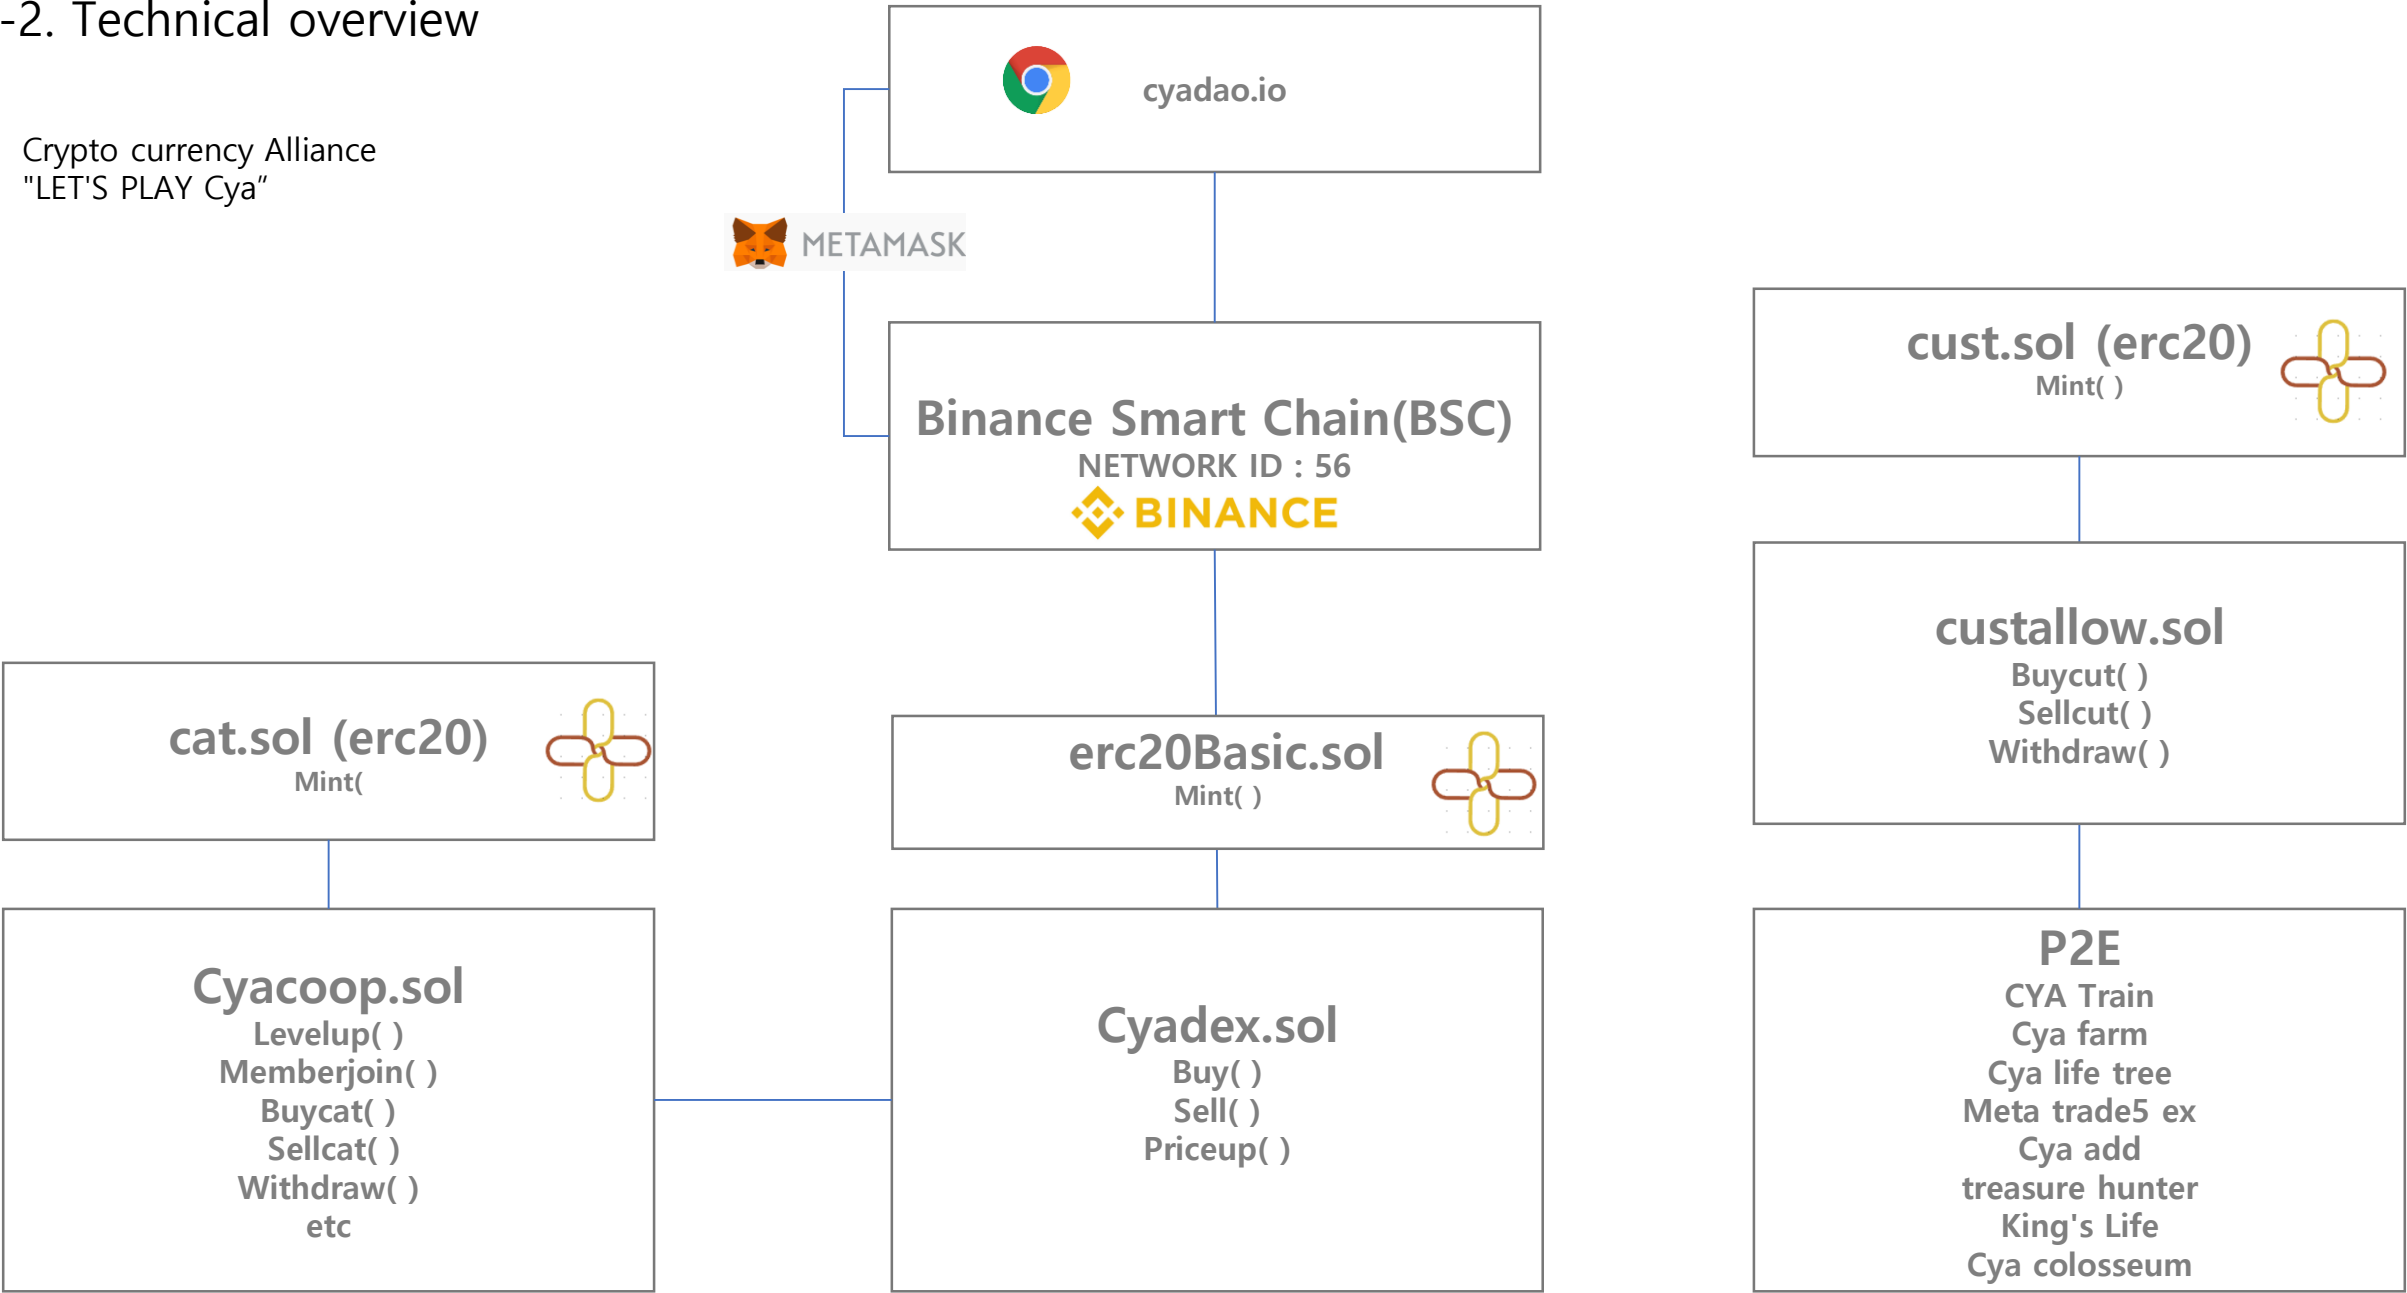

- *The representative event of CUT is CAT.
- *CUT stands for Cya Utility Token.
- *CUT can distribute business profits and vote for related stocks.
- *CUT value changes from time to time according to business status and distribution volume.
- *If you hold CUT, you can receive CYA tokens differentially based on your level every week.
- *CUT individual trading is possible, but selling smart contracts is only possible after 1 year from the time of initial holding

Cya Bank

- * There is a business-related fund pool for each business type.
- *Dividend and CUT values fluctuate depending on the state of the fund pool.
- *Solidity source open principle
- *You can receive CYA tokens once a week depending on the amount and level of CUT from the corresponding fund pool.
